PENNCREST ADMINISTRATION

The staff and administration of Penncrest High School have enjoyed working with the Class of 1988. The many achievements and accomplishments of this class and individuals within the class have brought us all a great deal of pride. It has been very satisfying for me to work closely with the class, and I certainly commend the officers for their leadership this year. The positive attitudes exhibited by the members of this class have been highly responsible for the many successes. I am certain the Class of 1988 will continue to be successful in the future.

ART

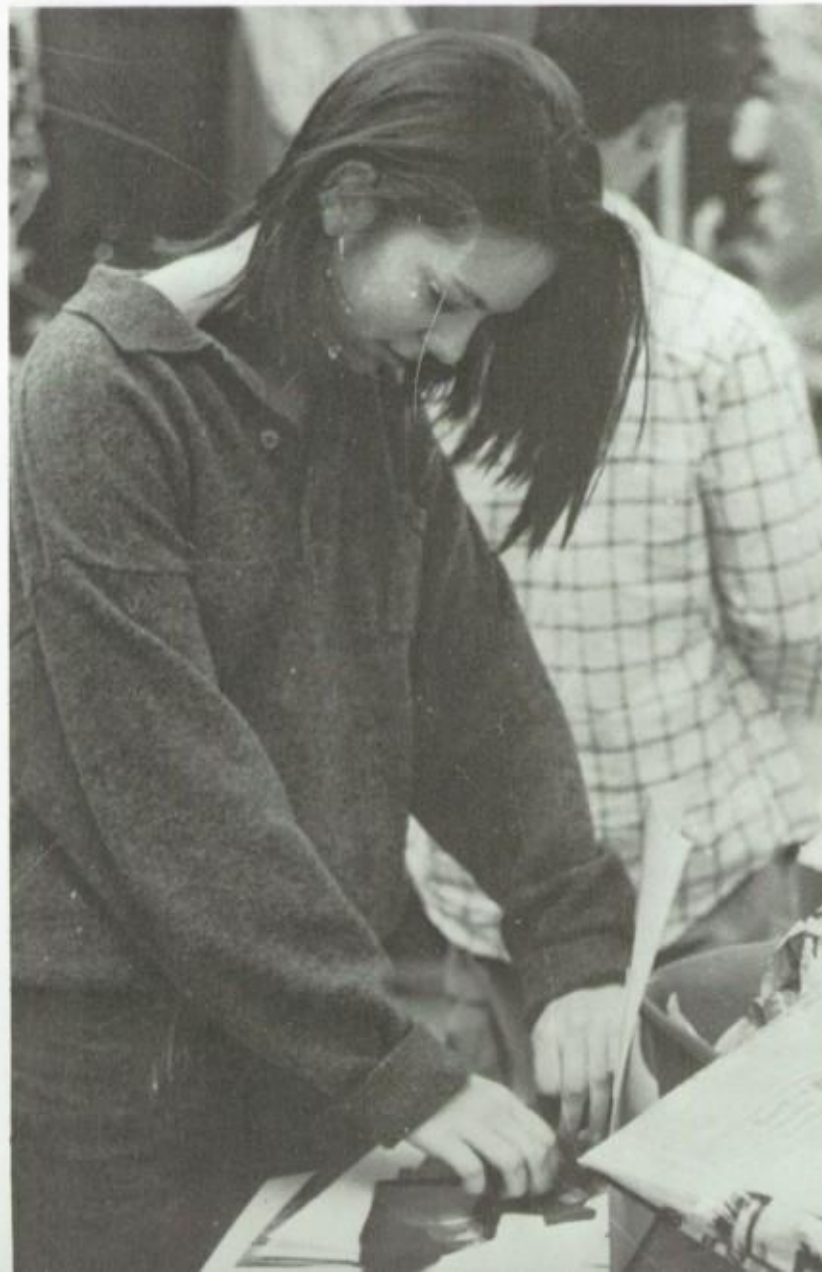

Mrs. M. Barney, Mr. C. Falcone, Mrs. A. Martin.

Staffed by Mrs. M. Barney and Mr. C. Falcone, and Mrs. A. Martin, the art program at Penncrest has many challenging and exciting classes to offer. For those with serious interest, the art major program is ideal. Mr. Falcone teaches a three year comprehensive program that starts with the basics of drawing in Art I, experimentation in Art II, and self-expression in Art III. As difficult and time-consuming as the work is, it pays off. Art major students have won numerous competitions, including Governor's school and the honor of having work hanging in Harrisburg and Washington D.C. In the past, students have received acceptances to notable colleges and universities. As well as Art major, there is a wide range of elective opportunities that have second and third year experiences available.

The art staff can only be described as dedicated, able, and hardworking. All the courses have a firm curricular basis that results in a sound knowledge of art as well as good studio work. The Annual Art Exhibition in the spring displays the fruits of the year's labor for the entire program.

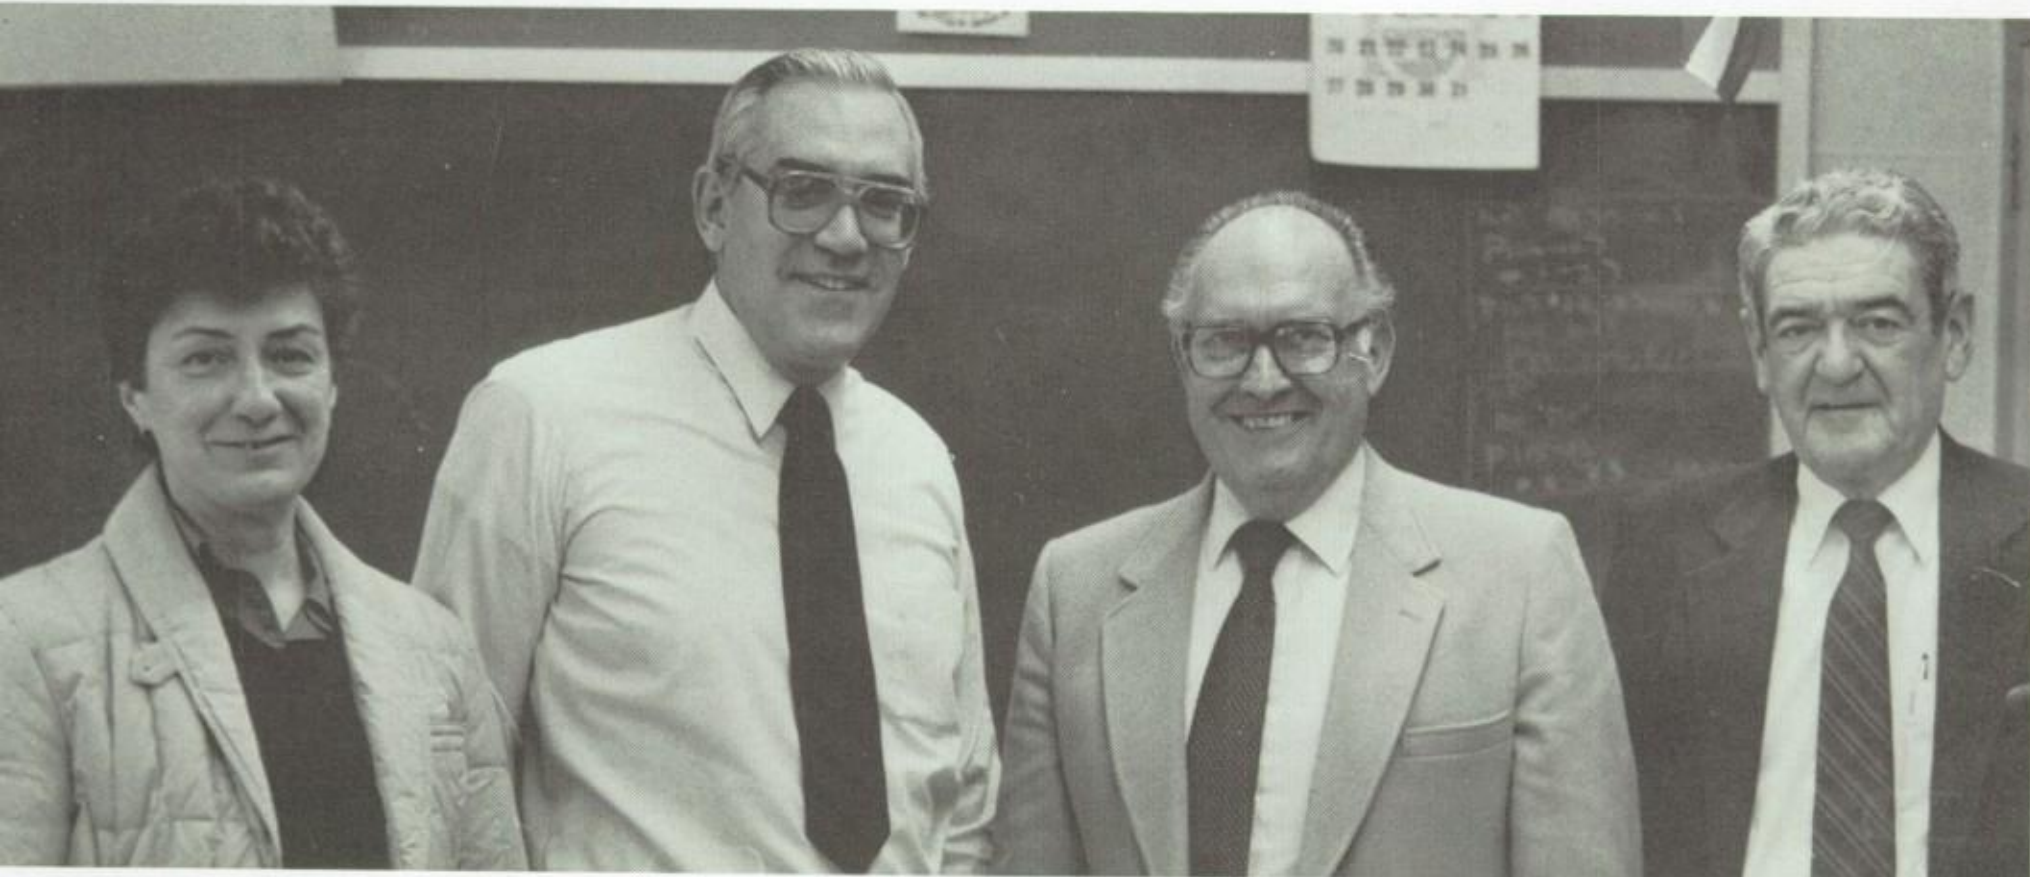

BUSINESS

The Business Department, which has been a part of our school system since Penncrest opened, boasts the enrollment of nearly 300 students. These students can take any one of fifteen courses designed to prepare them for the world of business. They are as follows: Accounting I and II, general business, business math, business law, record keeping, Shorthand I and II, stenographic office practice, clerical office practice, Typing I and II, intermediate typing, personal use typing, and advanced personal use typing.

The main thrust of the business program has changed a great deal since it first began. When Penncrest opened, students had to choose between college-oriented and business courses. Before, the business department was a tracked system in which students followed a regiment of courses. This is no longer the case. All business courses are now available to any student who wishes to take them, and a student may choose to enroll in only one subject or many.

The department serves a dual function: to prepare students who wish to go on to higher education, or to ready students for skilled training and jobs in industry. A large percentage of students within the business department do elect to attend college. The final objective of the department, however, says Mr. Cooper, the department supervisor, is "to give students an understanding of what really goes on in the world of business and of the dedication it takes to succeed there."

Mrs. N. Wenrich, Mr. P. Spahr, Mr. W. Cooper, Mr. R. McLaughlin.

Mrs. D. DeWalt, Mr. Pohlhaus.

In our fast paced world of today, computers are the tools of problem solving in both work and leisure areas. Many important tasks are performed in the Computer Department at Penncrest, headed by Mrs. DeWalt. Course selection is one such task. The students choose their courses for the following school year, and the computer determines their schedules with the given information. Database, a collection of data arranged for the ease of retrieval, is the primary usage of the computers.

Several courses are offered at Penncrest to students who are interested or required to take computer classes. Ninth grade Computers and Computer Literacy, meeting only twice a week, are two fundamental computer studies in the BASIC machine language. Computer Programming I-IV, however, provide a more in-depth, rigorous study that includes techniques, commands, and their use in projects. The beginning courses I and II also use BASIC, and after completion students may continue to progress to levels III and IV, which concern the Pascal language.

COMPUTERS

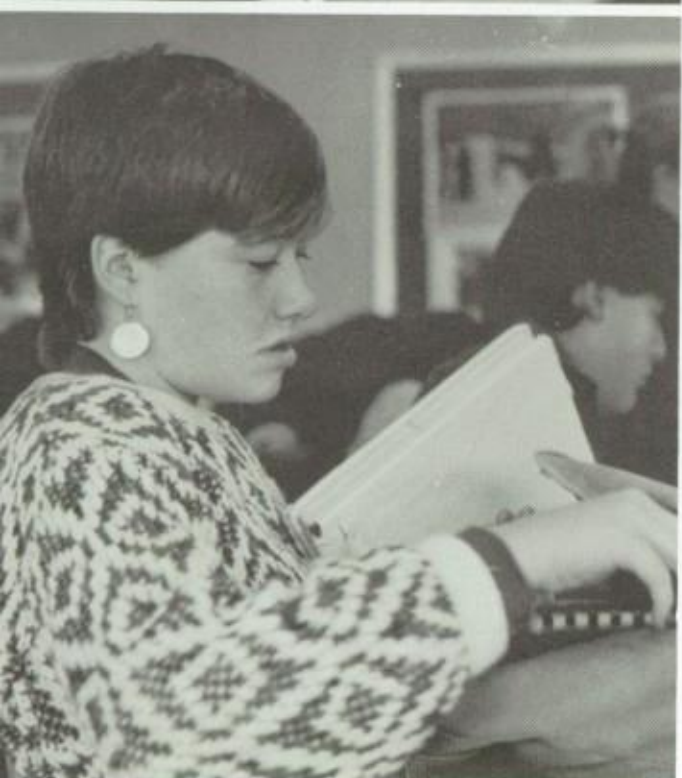

Miss L. Bower, Miss J. Roman, Miss E. Yeager, Mrs. Scholl, Ms. D. Greenstein, Mr. S. Taylor, Ms. M. Hamill, Mrs. E. Jenner, Mr. M. Scheetz, Mr. J. Lohn, Mr. D. Loose.

The 1987-88 English Department at Penncrest, headed by Miss Mary Hamill, added some new instructors to its staff. Mr. Daniel Loose, assistant principal, took over the 12th grade ATP course "Modern Comparative Literature." Mrs. Goldfarb, department supervisor, taught one section of "Forms of Literature" for 11th grade.

Quite a few staff members attended conventions. Mr. Wineman went to NCTE (National Council of Teachers of English) in Los Angeles. Mrs. Jenner attended PCTE (Pa. Council of Teachers of English) in Reading. Ms. Hamill went to "Power Communication Skills for Women" in Phila. in December. Ms. Bower attended "Teaching Writing with Power" in Phila.

Field trips were part of the instruction also. Two hundred twenty-two seniors enrolled in "Classics" and "World Writers" courses attended an unusual performance of Hamlet at the People's Light Theater in Malvern, Pa.

ENGLISH

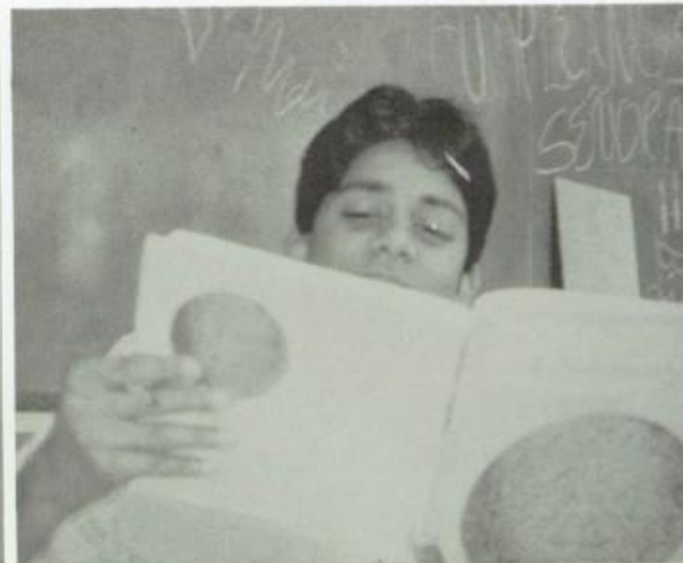

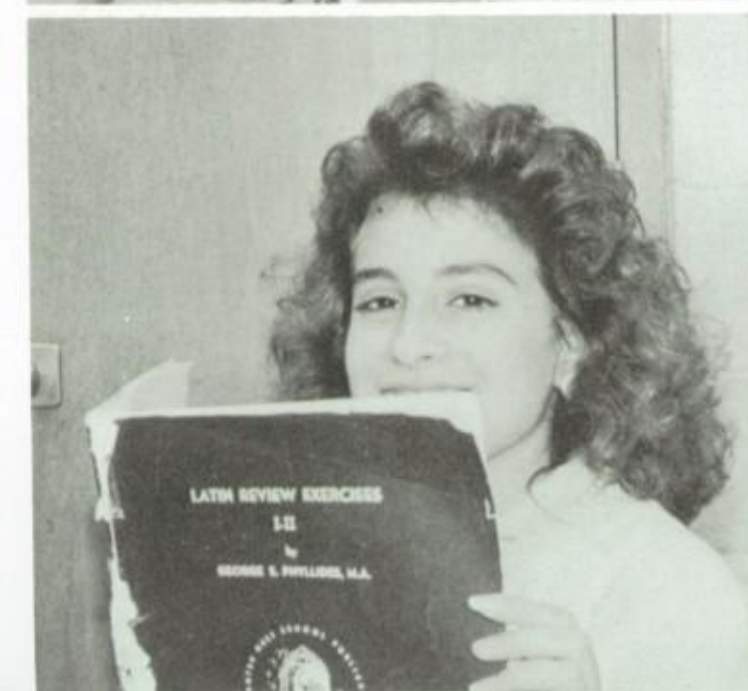

The Foreign Language Department at Penncrest, headed by Mrs. Mary Morton, has a very extensive course study program. Offerings include five levels of difficulty in French and Spanish, and four levels of difficulty in German and Latin. Students taking a foreign language have made trips for cultural enrichment and to find out about the kinds of careers open to bilingual men and women.

The Foreign Language Department also sponsors a district-wide foreign language contest. Language students who have a "B" average or better are eligible for the contest. There is a test for each level of each language. The best three students for each level of each language get to go to the Foreign Language Fete. At the Fete, the students receive their awards and sample foreign cuisine. This year the Fete was on March 23. The Foreign Language Department also helps fund the Phyllis Cavanaugh Scholarship Fund. This fund provides one thousand dollars for a summer abroad to an underclassman taking a foreign language. This year the recipient is Bob Rawlings.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Home Economics Department has always been one of Penncrest's strong features. Approximately 230 students are enrolled in a variety of courses. Any student may elect to take Psychology of relationships, Child development, Exploring Home Economics, Beginning sewing, Creative stitching, Fundamentals of cooking, Creative cooking, and Gourmet cooking. One of the unique features of the department is the repetition of courses. If a student becomes very interested in one subject, they may continue to enroll in that course year after year.

Although some students choose to take only one of the department's courses, Mrs. Mathias hopes to teach students basic homemaking skills. The department also attempts to inform students of careers in home economics and related areas. Interested students have the option to take field trips to the Italian Market, various nursery schools, and the Philadelphia College of Textiles and Science as a further demonstration of applied home economics.

Pressing makes perfect.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The Industrial Arts department includes courses in metal working, wood working, drafting, and graphics. This is one of the few programs in the district that teaches graphics and enrolls many students. The industrial arts teachers - Mr. Smailer, Mr. Makowski, Mr. Kriebel, and Mr. Shea - teaches these courses to students in this school.

The school gives a background in industrial arts by providing a broad spectrum of available courses, teaching safety rules, and teaching the use of tools. Students interested in industrial arts may take Industrial Arts Major 9, Industrial Arts Lab, Principles of Construction, or World of Construction.

Those students also interested in graphics can also take Graphic Arts and Photography I & II. For students who like making plans, there is General Drafting, Advanced Mechanical & Engineering, and Architectural Drafting. Students who like to work with metals or wood can take Metalworking Technology I & II or Woodworking Technology I & II. Industrial Arts prepares students for the future by giving people a hobby or a career in advertising, printing, or commercial art.

Mr. Kriebel, Mr. Shea, Mr. J. Smailer, Mr. Makowski.

MATHEMATICS

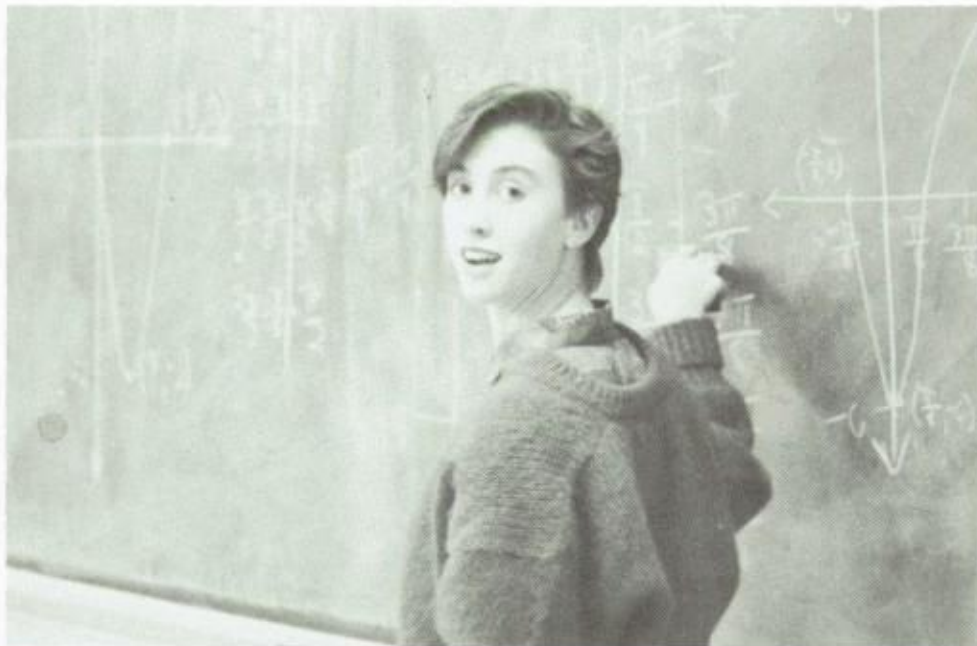

Penncrest's math department is headed by Mr. Schantz with Mrs. DeWalt as the building representative. The teachers of mathematics - Mr. Cherniski, Mr. Dale, Mrs. DeWalt, Mr. Jones, Mrs. Lockyer, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Peapples, Mr. Polhaus, Mr. Sessoms, and Mrs. Wilson - teach a variety of math courses ranging from the fundamentals of algebra to calculus.

For non-mathematicians who want to take math, there are courses such as Business Mathematics, Practical Mathematics, and Laboratory Mathematics. Students with a greater interest in mathematics can take the fundamental math courses which are the Fundamentals of Algebra I, Fundamentals of Algebra II, Fundamentals of Geometry, Fundamentals of Intermediate Algebra, and Fundamentals of Trigonometry. Other courses offered by the math department for these students are Algebra I, Math Applications, and Senior Math Review.

More difficult courses are available for the serious math students. They are the following: Algebra I, Geometry, Algebra II, Trigonometry, and Advanced Math. Those daring students who complete this regimen of courses can find themselves challenged by one of three calculus courses - Introductory Calculus, Calculus, and ATP Calculus.

Row One: Mr. W. Pohlhaus, Mrs. K. Lockyer, Mr. E. Dale, Mrs. A. Peapples, Mr. J. Sessoms, Mrs. D. DeWalt, Row Two: Mr. A. Jones, Mrs. N. Wilson, Mr. P. Cherniski, Mrs. S. Miller.

An exciting day in mathematics.

Mrs. C. Ruch, Mr. J. Conte.

The Music Department, headed by Mr. Conte, has a wide variety of offerings. Courses include: music theory, 20th century music, beginning and advanced guitar, choir, show choir, girls' chorus, band, jazz band, and string ensemble. Approximately 230 students are involved in the music department. While some students plan a career in a related field, many elect to take music for enjoyment. Whatever the student's intentions, the main purpose of the department, says Mr. Conte, is "to allow each student to fully develop his own music potential." This objective is accomplished not only through classroom experience but also through outside activities. The groups play at local events; the band can be seen wearing costumes in the Media Halloween Parade. Of course, the choir's best-known activities are the Christmas and spring concerts and the annual fruit sale.

The band, choir, and string ensemble all participate in competitions, some within the area, others at quite a distance. During the spring the choir attended a national festival in Orlando, Florida.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The Physical Education Department, supervised by Dr. Joseph Haviland, provides a format of general exercise for maintaining a healthy body. This type of classwork is graded upon being prepared for class as well as active participation on the part of the student. Lesson plans include such sports activities as soccer, basketball, tennis, and lacrosse, and beforehand, warmups to get people going. These classes try to encourage students to be physically active and pursue interests, for example, to try out for the Junior Varsity or Varsity sports teams.

A greater emphasis on physical fitness was evident in the 1987-88 school year. Preparation for the fitness testing consisted of several stretching exercises as well as timed running practices. Students are given special recognition for achieving Presidential Standards.

Classes for Physical Education Majors are more rigorous than the usual twice-a-week gym class. Other than taking gym every day, they take weekly tests for knowledge and skill. Some students elect this course since they seek a physical education career, or they are on a weight-loss program, or for sheer enjoyment.

Physical Education teachers also serve to educate health classes, which are mandatory for all eleventh graders. Classes include discussion on first aid, nutrition, diseases and other concepts to make students aware of the importance of physical fitness and health for themselves presently and in the future.

The Science department is one of the four main backbone departments of the school. Courses in it are required of all students, but there is really a wide variety of courses offered even after a student's requirements are fulfilled. The department offers: Earth Science, Advanced Earth Science, Biology, Biology II, Physics, Science in the Modern World, Practical Science, and Chemistry.

The department is headed by Mr. Charles Beehler, who is now in the process of doing his PhD dissertation. Other teachers are also pursuing other areas of interest while teaching at Penncrest. Mr. Palmer works on an archeological dig site at times and is currently involved with the accu-weather service. This, of course, is used in the freshman earth science classes to make weather charts.

SCIENCE

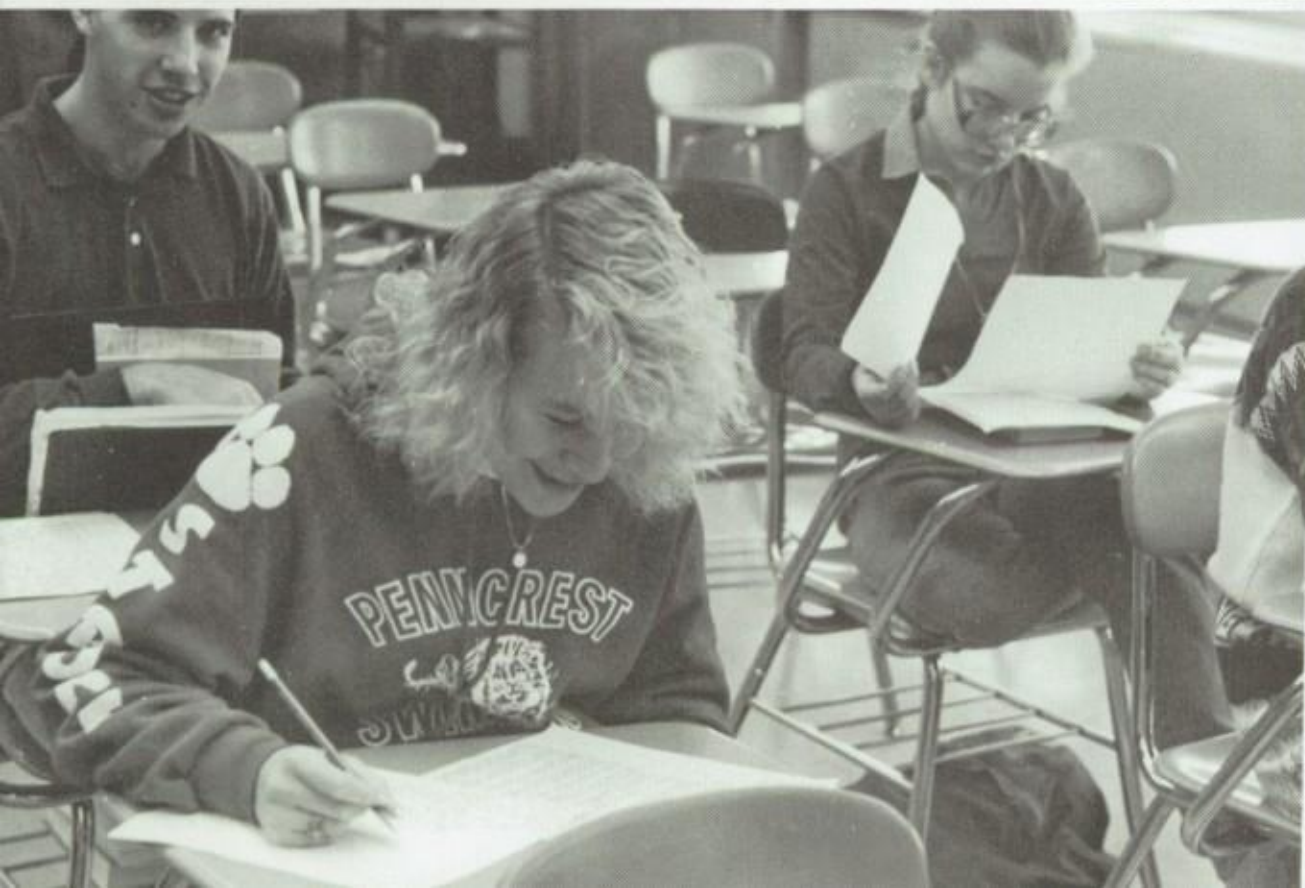

The Penncrest Social Studies Department, headed by Mr. John Pauley, is one of high school's four base programs and the culmination of a district-wide system that began in kindergarten. This program, supervised by Mr. Robert Heinly, consists of a carefully planned and articulated curriculum which is revised periodically. At Penncrest, the courses offered in Social Studies are as follows: Social Studies 9 (U.S. History till the end of the Civil War), ATP Historic America, Social Studies 10 (U.S. history since the Civil War), ATP Modern America, Social Studies 11 (European History and Economics), ATP Modern Europe, Social Studies 12 (World Cultures), ATP Mankind, and Sociology.

The instruction within the department is based on a theory in which students are given bits and pieces of information beginning in kindergarten. As students advance towards graduation, more facts are added to what they have already learned so that the information all comes together. At the high school level, students are also asked to do several "enrichment readings" each year to add to the basically factual information they receive in class.

The Special Education department at Penncrest provides instruction for students with special educational needs. If a teacher and counselor feel that a student would benefit from modified Special Education courses, then the student's parents are asked to approve a recommendation that the student be scheduled for Special Education classes. All of the courses offered within the department are adapted treatments of the content of the regular education program. The department offers the following courses: English 9, English 10, English 11, English 12, Social Studies 9, Social Studies 10, Social Studies 11, Social Studies 12, Earth Science, Biology, Mathematics 9, Mathematics 10, and Health.

The Physically Challenged program at Penncrest, headed by Mr. R. VanLangeveld and aided by many others, has come a long way since its start.

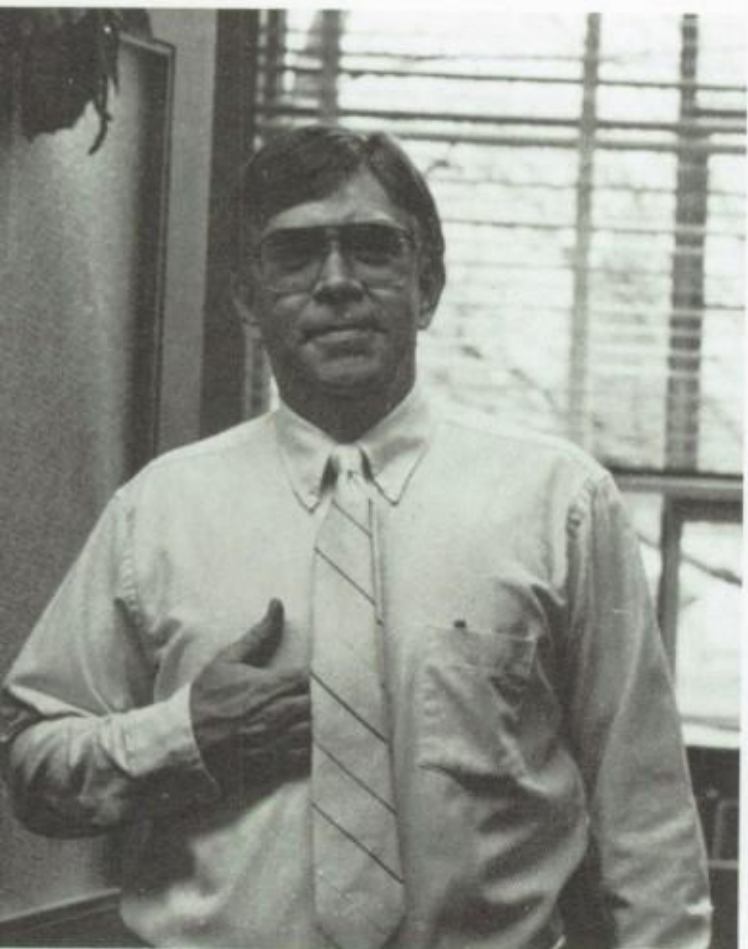

In Memoriam:

One of Brian's classmates, Dave Clinton, wrote this tribute to Brian Laurie: Brian had a disease called muscular dystrophy. Muscular dystrophy causes muscles to become weak and waste away. Brian, who would have graduated this year, died last summer.

Brian was a happy and joyful person. Always in a good mood and with a good personality, he never once had a bad word about anyone and loved everyone he met.

In school, Brian was an extremely hard worker. He had the highest respect for all his teachers and did his best for them. All his friends enjoyed his company and Brian's sense of humor. We will miss him always.

SPECIAL EDUCATION/PHYSICALLY CHALLENGED

Row One: Mrs. E. Orlow, Mr. J. Wilson. Row Two: Mr. H. Hayward, Mrs. N. Peters, Mr. D. Cook.

One of the most helpful areas to nearly all students at Penncrest is the Guidance Office and Career Center. Upon entering (after noticing the courteous "Please Enter Without Knocking" inscription upon the door), one often sees the staff thoroughly engaged in their work, and always attentive to aid anyone with problems.

Mr. Wilson, Mr. Hayward, Mr. Cook, and Mr. Orlow are the four grade level counselors. They view their main objective, as Mr. Hayward suggests, "To serve students as their needs are determined." One may set an appointment with his counselor to discuss several areas of concern, i.e. careers, choice of colleges, any personal problems, curriculum, roster changes, etc. With their guidance, students will be better able to make decisions which would be important for their future at Penncrest and after graduation.

The Career Center is best known for providing information on colleges. Materials such as catalogues of two-year and four-year colleges may be borrowed from the center. In addition, Apple computers have stored data on colleges, military services, graduate schools, and occupations. From September to January each school year, representatives from over 200 colleges visit Penncrest to discuss college options. The Career Center also makes students aware of scholarships and jobs available.

SENIORS

to the class of '88, Let's turn the clocks back and try to remember the September of 1984, our freshman year. We've accomplished great things and had a lot of fun since then. Such events as our Freshman Dance, Sophomore Jam, J.V. Show, Junior Prom, and Canned Food Drives have exhibited our enthusiasm. This year, however, has been the time when we've really come into our own. The Senior Fair, Homecoming Float and Breakfast, concessions, Senior Play, Senior Prom, and Graduation are all events which we will fondly remember for years to come. The hard work of our class has been appreciated by the school and community. Our sponsors, Mrs. Pahides and Mr. Pauley, have been an integral part of the success that we've enjoyed. I'd like to take this opportunity to offer them a special thank you for all of their time, hard work, and patience. Together we've emerged as a terrific class. I've been proud and honored to have served as your president. Best of luck and congratulations to Penncrest's Class of 1988.

Anything Goes, this year's Senior Play, abounds in strange plot twists and great songs. Now, try to get this straight. The entire play takes place on a ship bound for England. Billy Crocker shows up at the ship's departure to see off a friend of his, the famed evangelist Reno Sweeny and her four 'angels' who illustrate the beauty of heaven. While he is seeing his friend onto the ship, however, he spots a girl, Hope Harcourt, who he had proposed marriage to in the past. He has been looking for this girl since he proposed because she ran away without leaving a name or address. Sooo . . . he boards the ship as a stowaway and befriends a one-time notorious ship's gambler, 'Moonface Martin,' with triskadekaphobia. Moonface manages to get Billy a cabin on the ship, but unfortunately this cabin was reserved for one of Moonface's friends, number one on the 'wanted' list. Now Billy has five and a half days to win Hope away from a pleasant but 'lame-brained' English baronet, while being chased by the ship's officers who are trying to nab the occupant of the gangster's cabin. So, to avoid capture, Billy (and Moonface) have to resort to various disguises, such as a pair of Chinese converts, to elude the ship's crew . . . the plot goes on. Some of the best songs of the play include Friendship, I Get A Kick Out Of You, Anything Goes, Let's Misbehave, and Blow, Gabriel, Blow.

A WRINKLE IN TIME

The warm, dark haze behind your eyes is filled with doubting images. Sunlight filtered through the trees, a football lazily spiralling through the air, homework papers shuffling like autumn leaves are all part of the contented dreams. If you listen carefully you can hear distant lunchroom crowds or even the soft scratching of pencils. You feel as if you're late for an appointment, but you can't see your watch. Suddenly, the shrieking buzzer of your alarm shreds your quiet dream to pieces. To your shock, it's 6:00 in the morning on the last day of school. Where has the time gone? How has the year ticked by so quickly?

This has been a busy year for everyone, so full of change and excitement that no one has had any time to even look at a clock. For the ninth graders, there was the difficulty of contending with the jump from Jr. Hi to Penncrest Freshmen. The preconceived notions of the eighth grader looking at the "high school experience" seem so distant now. Either those ideas mercifully overestimated the freshman year, or less fortunately underestimated it, but either way it was certainly a surprise. For sophomores and juniors this has been a year of more subtle transition, but none the less definite change. The sophomores are now steady on their feet and much more at home in the halls than any freshman. The juniors are gleefully looking forward to their senior year and the superiority that automatically comes with that position.

For most, this continual ticking of clocks is simply the reminder of the end of a high school year. For seniors, though, it is the winding down of a period of their lives. The alarm will go off, and they will find themselves in the morning of a new period of their lives. Twelve seasons of sports, twelve EMANON productions, four yearbooks, four literary magazines, and quite a few LION'S ROAR publications will be behind. They will have seen many choir and band performances and their own senior play, "Anything Goes." And who can forget the hours in study halls, the quizzes, the class discussions, the seemingly endless lectures, and all those tests? All these things will be of the past, things to remember in the spare moments of the future. The Junior Prom of the class of 88 pictured here can already be considered part of these memories with the Senior Prom so fresh in the minds of the seniors. And though no one can say what the days ahead will bring, there are always the warm moments of the past to help them through the future.

HOMECOMING

Under sunny skies and warm temperatures, Penncrest held its annual Homecoming game and Senior Appreciation Day, on Saturday, November 14, 1987. The football game was against Haverford High School, with the final score being Penncrest 7-Haverford-6. At half time, the homecoming queen and her court were announced. Homecoming Queen was Heather MacQueen. Her court was made up of Ivy Hewlett, Shannon McCloskey, Debbie Shipley, and Margie Trankiem. Paige Vishton was Junior representative; Carrie Serwatka, Sophomore representative; Carrie Donato, Freshman representative.

The Senior class, led by class president, Jim DelBello, designed the float for the occasion. The float was decorated with red and gold tissue flowers spelling "Penncrest Homecoming" on white background and was towed by Dean Keyes. As part of the celebration, parents of the seniors on the football team helped in honoring their sons. Homecoming was truly a day of memorable events.

Jen, Gwyn, and Nicole provide concentrated, cheerful preparation.

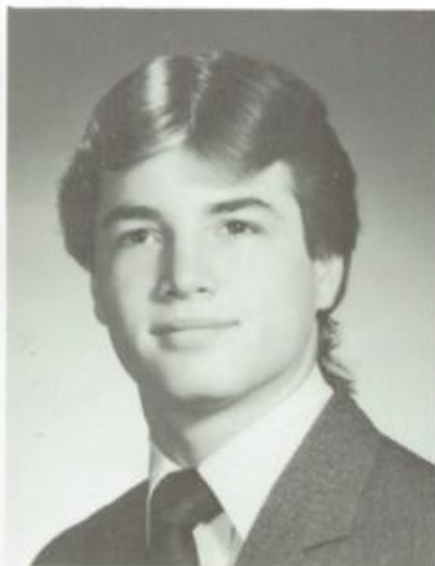

This year's senior class repeated an event that has now become a Penncrest tradition - the Pancake Breakfast. Early in the morning on the day of Homecoming, one could smell the delicious aroma of pancakes and sausage throughout the lobby of the school. At the door, cheerful seniors Mimi Korpics and Karen Kautz were selling tickets. Inside the cafeteria, the cooks were busy, flipping flapjacks and grilling sausage. The usual senior efficiency prevailed, continuing a standard of excellence that would be the envy of MacDonalds and Denny's. It was a great way to start a great day, and was the perfect opener to the Homecoming festivities.

This past year, the class of '89 has grown in many ways. We've reached out to help the children in the Special Olympics, we caroled at Christmas time to neighboring nursing homes, and we've helped to feed the needy of Delaware County with the Canned Food Drive. We've had fun at the Junior Prom and especially with the Junior Variety Show. Who could forget those long nights of practices with Dr. Nowell and Mrs. Buzby?

Through our class activities, the junior class has united in ways we never fathomed and has created cherished friendships and memories that will last a lifetime. We could not have successfully completed our class activities without the fine leadership and devotion that prevailed through our class officers and our sponsors, Miss Zebley and Mr. Taylor.

I must say that I am very proud to be representing such an extraordinary class. Good luck next year as seniors and in everything you do.

Love ya gang!

Great job, juniors! The 1987 Junior Varsity Show was one of Penncrest's most outstanding productions ever. With the help of talented students, faculty, and a dedicated tech crew, the show went smoothly both nights and raised an impressive amount for the class treasury. The audience enjoyed a wide variety of skits, dances, and songs, all demonstrating the exceptional abilities of the junior class. Special thanks is extended to everyone who contributed to the show's huge success. The show's theme, "Lean on Me," expressed another very important aspect of the junior class: the cooperation and closeness that developed during the long nights of practice. Good luck to the class of 1989 next year! And remember, juniors do it better!

Class of '90,

By coming together and working hard, we had a very prosperous sophomore year. When the year began, the major question about our class was the lack of involvement. Now I can proudly say that we have set the record straight. Our success at the Senior Fair, the great class trip, and the cooperation at the canned food drive were just a few signs of our class spirit. Our success at the Valentine's Day Dance was probably our biggest sign of the dedication and hard work of our class, which made it the most successful dance of the year. I must sincerely thank our class sponsor, Mrs. Scholl, the class officers, and the homeroom representatives for their many hours of hard work and all their support. Most of all, I would like to thank the entire class for making our sophomore year so successful.

Involvement was the key word for our freshman year. The class of '91 had an exciting year because people got involved. We have three more years left at Penncrest, and we are going to make those years count! This year the freshmen participated in many activities: Senior Fair, canned food drive, candy sales, the class trip, and the list continues to grow. Our class would never have gone this far if it weren't for our class sponsor, Mrs. Orlow. She kept us running smoothly throughout the year. I would also like to thank the class officers, the home-room representatives, and the entire freshman class for their support in making this year so successful.

Sincerely,

Anne Coll

ACTIVITIES

CLOSE-UP CLUB

Mrs. Chambers, B. Park, N. Kleckner, L. Malkoun, D. Hudak, K. Kodumal.

Each year, Penncrest students are given the opportunity to get involved in a national program called Close-Up. This program gives its members the chance to learn about the U.S. government on a national, state and local level through hands-on experience. The students also learn about the U.S. foreign policy, the law making process, etc. Close-Up members participate in field trips to Washington D.C. and Harrisburg. The high point of the Close-Up program is a week long stay in our nation's capital. This trip provides the students with a chance to meet people from all over the country and learn how the federal government works through meetings with senators, representatives, and the White House staff.

This year's computer club consisted of students who have completed the Computer III and IV courses. The members of the computer club included Wendy Heffernan, Michael North, Sean Wollaston, Trevor Salla, Jill Hunter, Scott Campbell, Steve Watkinson, Dave Alumbaugh, Rob Lowinski, and Jay Kubicky. Under the supervision of Mrs. DeWalt, the club's sponsor, the members created programs for Penncrest, local businesses, and any Penncrest teacher who requested specific applications. Some of the computer club's accomplishments included creating a homeroom data base for Penncrest and making a data base to track all the seniors' cars. As of December 1987, the members were working on a special education package and a statistics program for both the Penncrest Boys' and Girls' basketball teams.

COMPUTER CLUB

FITNESS CLUB

The Fitness club is open to any student enrolled in grades 9-12 who is interested in achieving fitness through resistance training. The training facility includes two universal machines and an assortment of free weights. Sponsor Ted Makowski provides instruction when the club is held on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 2:30 to 4:00 pm.

Row One: W. Pickersgill, B. Jordan, D. Killian, M. Carpenter. Row Two: H. Ranajee, Mr. Makowski, N. Wood, May, T. Valente, D. Huss, R. Rajagopol, J. Rubin, R. Nicholson.

Hostess Helpers consists of a group of students who are interested in culinary experiences beyond the classroom. Students are able to earn a little money while participating in club activities. Members of the community call school whenever they are in need of assistance for events such as dinners, parties, or weddings. Students are matched with these events according to the needs and abilities of both.

The International Club is an active and popular organization sponsored by Mrs. Diksa. With the help of its officers — President Amy Hart, Vice-President Concetta Seminara, Secretary Chris Trankiem, and Treasurer Ing Daniels — the club started the year with the successful International Weekend. During the weekend of November 20, Penncrest families hosted 25 foreign exchange students from seven different countries. The exchange students currently attend other area schools. The club escorted their guests to Philadelphia on Saturday, then served a brunch for everyone Sunday morning. At the club's monthly meetings, members have planned a variety of other activities, including a trip to Canada in April. The meetings' agenda usually consists of a slide presentation or other cultural experience followed by refreshments.

INTER-CLASS COUNCIL

According to Mr. Gamble, the administrative designee of the Inter-Class Council, the purpose of the ICC is "to help the classes help each other to attain the goals they set for themselves." Headed by Joanna Druecker, the members of ICC support and encourage participation in such activities as the JV show, canned food drive, and the caring tree. In May, with the help of Ms. Zebley, the ICC coordinates penncrest participation in the Special Olympics. They also print the monthly outline newsletter to keep students up to date on activities. Appropriately enough, the ICC's theme for this year is "Coordination," one which they've lived up to the entire year.

One of the most prestigious honors bestowed upon a student at Penncrest is the induction into the National Honor Society. According to its advisor, Mr. Antonucci, and President Larry Meli, election to the society is based on four qualities: scholarship, leadership, service, and character. This year's officers are President Larry Meli, Vice-President Greg Vano, Secretary Chris Charnitski, and Treasurer Mark Dehmel. Throughout the year, the society sponsors many activities, including the annual Bloodmobile. Juniors and seniors who are chosen are inducted during the fall. Election to the society is a great honor, and we congratulate all those who have achieved success.

NIGHT SCHOOL

Penncrest sponsors a night school for interested students whose needs were not met during the day. Night school meets for two hours on Tuesday and Wednesday, with six teachers devoting their time and expertise: Miss Hami, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Orlow, Mr. Sessoms, Mr. Swanson, and Mr. Waltman.

This year twenty-two students are enrolled in the program, but numbers have ranged from twelve to twenty-five in past years. Since 1975, night school has been informing students of practical and necessary skills needed to survive in the world and is designed for students who elect not to further their education.

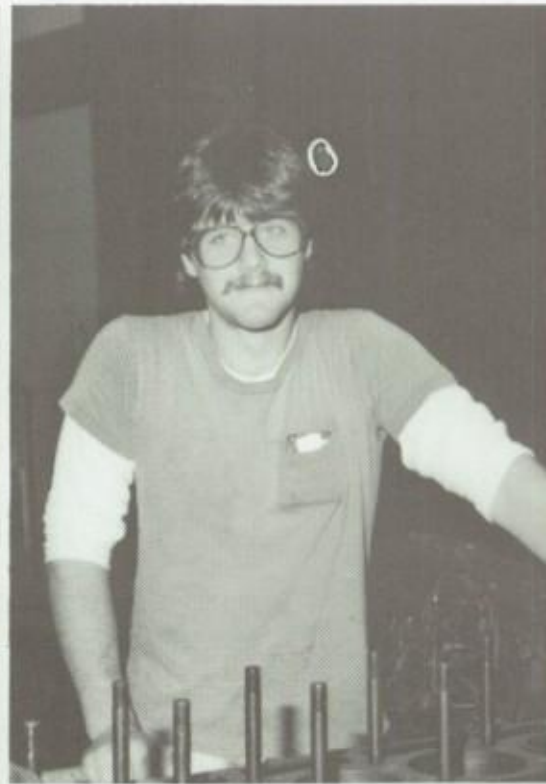

Row one: J. Robbins, S. Firor, D. Simmons, L. Bentley, M. Kelly, D. Golden, C. Benson. Row two: C. Newman, W. Wilson, P. Cameron, A. Bush, T. Lee, N. Bessix, S. Boyd, C. Larkin.

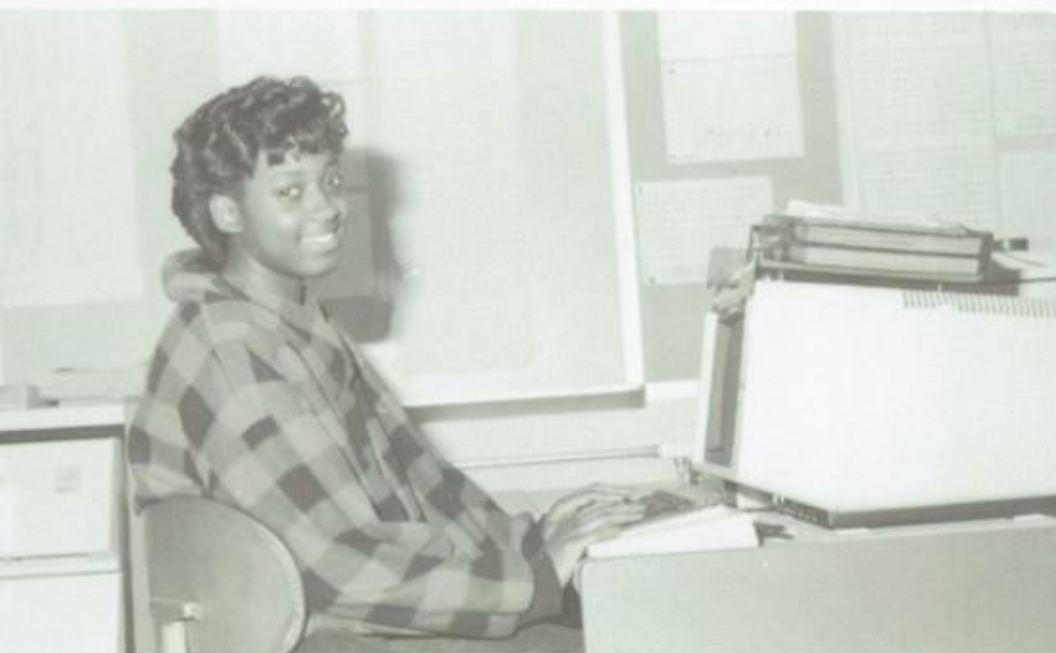

Both the students and the teachers enjoy working in the class atmosphere that night school provides.

VO-TECH

Penncrest boasts a vocational-technical educational program. This program is an extension of the high school curriculum, because completion of a Vo-tech course is credited towards graduation. The Vo-tech course offerings are varied, including Automotive, construction, health, horticulture, and electrical trades. Some of these courses receive two credits; those courses with math earn three credits. The program runs on a half day basis, where half the day is spent at Vo-tech, while the students attend regular classes at Penncrest for the second half. The Vo-tech program is successful year after year because it allows students to get training in a technical field, training which they need in order to further their careers. With specializing skills becoming increasingly important, Vo-tech students acquire useful work experience.

SCOTT'S HI-Q

Scott Hi-Q, celebrating its 40th anniversary in Delaware County, is the nation's oldest academic quiz competition. The Penncrest squad consists of eight members who are selected on the basis of academic prowess. Veterans Paul Baker, Gene Hsu, and Jim Michelson, as well as new players Kevin Donahue, Len Kim, Mike North, Helga Talbot, and Mike Tancredi comprise the 1988 Hi-Q team. The students will defend Penncrest's hard-won 1987 county championship, the first for the school since 1961. When asked to assess this year's squad, Coach Ludwig thought a moment and replied "I cannot guarantee another championship, but I can and do guarantee a well-prepared, competitive team . . . I would love to make the finals again, and I know my team and I will expend every effort to bring Penncrest that honor."

The Penncrest Debate club, under the direction of Miss LeGendre, is an organization in which students debate the topic of energy. The club's season runs from September to February, beginning with introductory workshops and concluding with Regional Debates. Sponsored by the Philadelphia Electric Company, the debate teams compete for $1000 and $500 U.S. Savings Bonds, awarded to the finalist and semifinalists, respectively. This year Penncrest boasted one of its largest teams ever, consisting of senior Krista Youngstrom, juniors Ing Daniels, Tanya Krafft, Cambo Manthorpe, Bona Park, and John Young, sophomores Stephanie Brian and Dave Murray, and freshman Amy Bonnes.

NEW HORIZONS

New Horizons is a club designed to give its members challenges and in turn build confidence in themselves through these different experiences. The faculty advisor is Mr. Smailer. The group takes several outdoor trips such as caving, rock climbing, backpacking, and cross-country skiing. On these trips the students learn trust, face a challenge, and perhaps learn something about themselves. They get to know their friends better and learn to trust them. The New Horizons program has been at Penncrest since 1965 and is a good experience for those who enjoy traveling.

GAMES CLUB

The Gaming Club is an organization that meets on Fridays and plays college level games. The club is traditionally referred to as the Dungeons and Dragons club because this is the game the members usually play at their meetings. They play other role-playing games as well and new members are always welcome. There are 7 players to date: Trevor Salla, Russell Lighton, Dave Fortini, Frank Smith, Stephen Harmon, Kirk Nelms, and Kathy DeGroat.

Penncrest Band enjoyed another successful year. The band was under the field direction of drum major Sue Brown and section leaders Wendy Kaiser, flutes; Terri Pearce, clarinets; Dennis Killian, trumpets; Carol Staley, saxophones/low brass; Sue Brown, percussion; and Kecia Jerrell, band front.

In addition to the football games, the band participated in several parades including: the Media Veteran's Day Parade, the Halloween Parade, and the Upper Providence 300th Parade. The band also competed in five competitions.

They received outstanding ratings at Cabrini College, Owen J. Roberts H.S., and Haverford H.S.; a rating of excellent at Marple-Newton H.S., and a first place finish in the Division One competition at Concord H.S. Other high points for the band this year were the concert given by the Fabulous Greaseband in October, and the two concerts given by the band at Christmas and in the spring.

Under its third year of direction by Mrs. Ruch, the Penncrest choirs are doing better than ever. The concert choir performed in the winter concert, the spring concert, and a performance at Middletown Presbyterian Church. The Show Choir is a select group from the Concert Choir which makes other appearances in addition to those with the Concert Choir. These extra performances include ones at the Towne House, Bishop Nursing Home, school assemblies, and the PennWood Chamber Choir Festival. The Girls' Chorus consisted of ninth and tenth grade girls, and performed in all the concerts where the Concert Choir performed. Sally Albrecht, a professional choreographer and musician, taught all three choirs "choralography" to the music they learned for the spring concert.

This year was also a trip year in which all the choirs went to Orlando, Florida on April 6-11. To help fund this trip, the choirs had several fund raisers over two years. They sold magazines, candy, and fruit; raffled prizes; held bake sales; ran a flea market; handled dance concessions; and had a photo booth at the Senior Fair.

Three people made District Chorus this year: Erin Reed - 10th grade, Chris Suk - 11th grade, and Gene Hsu - 12th grade. All had the opportunity to audition for Regional and then State Chorus.

The Jazz Band consists of a group of talented musicians who are selected by audition in the spring and fall. The band plays a varied repertoire ranging from television themes to standard swing classics. Instruments involved in the band are five trumpets, two trombones, and five saxophones, with two pianists, one bassist, and three percussionists rounding out the rhythm section. The Jazz Band performs at several school functions, such as assemblies, and has one major concert in April.

TECH CREW

Behind the scenes of productions like the Emanon musical, the Junior Variety Show, and the Senior play are the talents of the Tech Crew. Headed by faculty advisor Mrs. Ruch and President Brian Cassidy, these students develop a knowledge of electronics in order to maintain the sound and light systems in Penncrest's auditorium. This group is vital to the overall coordination of school events and is continually supported by dedicated members. Special thanks is extended to the Tech Crew for their assistance. Keep up the good work!

With Mrs. Jeanne Hockenberry as its director, the String ensemble got off to a promising year. This year the ensemble consists of three people - Gene Hsu, violin; Dorothy McManus, cello; and Heidi Schettler, piano. This ensemble periodically combines with the Springton Lake orchestra for larger works, but perform smaller ensemble pieces by themselves. In the winter, the ensemble plays at the choir, band, and string concerts. They perform at the Media courthouse, a local nursing home, and in the past they have played for the Phyllis Cavanaugh Scholarship fund. All members also participate in the String Jam-boree in early 1988 and the combined string concert in the spring; all strings from the district perform in both of these events. Violinist Gene Hsu made it into both the District and Regional Orchestras, which comprise the best musicians in one of 12 districts or one of 6 regions in Pennsylvania.

SADD

This year's Students Against Drunk Driving chapter at Penncrest has grown to include over 150 students. The chapter's main objective is to keep students alive and to prevent them from engaging in driving while under the influence of drugs or alcohol. S.A.D.D. promoted this and other safety measures through seatbelt checks, booths at the Senior Fair, and the Regional Conference that the club sponsored in November. The group is led by President Linda Jenner, Vice President Leonard Kim, Secretary Brian Sack, Treasurer Mike Tancredi, and sponsor Mrs. Ford. However, the group would not have been possible without the support of all its members.

The Penncrest school newspaper, better known as the Lion's Roar, has done well this year in publishing a successful newspaper. The editor, Jen Snead, has put together a team of hardworking students, with the help of advisors Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. Schreffler. Through their diligence, the staff has made this year's Lion's Roar one of the best. The paper has been informative as well as entertaining throughout the year. By reading the paper, Penncrest students have become aware of important situations such as teachers' contracts and improvement on the bus system. Also, it has kept students up to date with articles concerning Penncrest's sports teams. The entertainment section has come through with word searches and horoscopes. All in all, the Lion's Roar has gained respect as an important part of Penncrest history.

This year the literary magazine has decided to use whole space creativity, if they couldn't think of anything to meet the 150 word requirement. Anyway, Miss Bower is our enchanting adviser, our massively clever editors are Emily Zeamer, Kathy Smith, and Lily Engle. Of course we can't forget those wonderfully talented art editors, Kassandra Spence and Jeremiah Small. We are questing a new name (Gryphon is getting on our nerves) and hope to keep up our Keystone Award Standards.

EMANON

Emanon, Penncrest's theatrical club, enjoyed a very successful year. The group began the year with the annual Readers Theater production in October. The 1987 theme was titled "Relationships" and included cuttings from five different plays describing the interaction among various characters. "The Sunshine Boys" and "Table Settings" were two of the pieces featured. Emanon then began preparing for the winter musical presented in January. "Company" was a huge success, thanks to the work of many members both on stage and behind the scenes. The group's next project was a childrens' musical performed in the spring. Again, we congratulate all members on their many success.

It has been real and it has been fun. But has it been really fun? This is the question we all asked ourselves during those late nights after school. Why did we torture ourselves so, waiting until the last minute to take a group picture of a team and then finding out that they don't want it taken today because their hair is too messy. Again I say WHY ON EARTH DID WE DO IT! ALL this fun for the love of a yearbook.

Well it's done! All that hard work paid off and we have made the best yearbook in the history of Penncrest. It has been a year of firsts. The first year for a color picture as the cover, the first year for sixteen color pages, and it is the first year for baby picture patrons. This hard work could never have been accomplished without a dedicated staff. Special thanks to editors: Chris Charnitski, Allison Campbell, Chris Kagarise, Lawson Woodward, Karen Folk, Last but definitely not the least I want to thank Mrs. Barney, our over worked adviser. How did she do it?

This was a great year for the Varsity Football team. Under Coach Scheetz and Coach Sessoms, the players managed a 7-0 season. Appropriately enough, their slogan this year was "Lion's Pride," and they really lived up to it. Captained by Scott Campbell, Toby Finegan, and Greg Pascal, the team worked especially well together.

From an entire team of outstanding players, the coaches found it difficult to single out one or more outstanding players. They did agree that newcomer Mike Ludwigowski deserved special praise. The coaches also agreed that one of the most exciting moments in Penncrest football this year was the goal line stand in the game against Lower Merion. For four exciting plays the two teams fought for the goal. Lower Merion claimed victory in that skirmish, but Penncrest won the game.

The yearbook staff congratulates the entire team on a first class season and wishes them all continued success next year. We hope to see all non-seniors back on the Lion's team next year and expect the rest will be playing for the university of their choice!

Penncrest Varsity Football earns a 7-1 season.

Penncrest Junior Varsity makes it's contribution the sports history of Penncrest.

The Junior Varsity football team, coached by Mr. Swan, Mr. Johnson, and Mr. Sessoms completed a good season. Although the team did not win every game, the players had many opportunities to gain field experience. Coach Sessoms commented that some of the players were inexperienced at playing football. However, after practicing on a consistent basis, these players had improved considerably in the games they played. They learned to appreciate the idea of playing football as a team as well as learning how to win. Everyone on the team worked together to demonstrate spirit and dedication.

Under the leadership of Coach Spahr and Coach Lohn, the freshman football team gained experience throughout the season. The team finished their season with a 7-0 record. This was due to very good players with a desire to improve through hard work and team play. A large number of participating ninth graders is a good sign for future J.V. and varsity teams. It seems that the freshmen will be able to continue the Penncrest football tradition. Good luck next year, Lions!

The ninth grade football team made an awesome 56-0 win over Marple Newtown.

"Fisse" was the slogan of this year's Varsity Soccer Team. It suited the team well; the players enjoyed an exceptional season, ending with a record of 10-4-2. Coach Potts again supervised this fine selection of athletes, composed of 23 players. Captains were Damion Strommer, Randy Joyce, and Dan Cossaboon. While Strommer was noted for his expertise as a goal-keeper, the team's defense was supplemented by the initiative of offensive players Cossaboon and Claus Tanggard. The 1987 team compiled a list of remarkable achievements, including the defeat of Lower Merion, the third ranked team in the state, and the record of six shutout games. Coach Potts will have to rebuild the team next year, as nineteen seniors will graduate. Hopefully, upcoming J.V. players will continue the tradition of excellence. Good luck to the Lions in the future!

Penncrest takes control again.

JUNIOR VARSITY SOCCER

The 1987 J.V. Soccer team began the season with much anticipation, under the close direction of Coach Haebel and Coach Cochran. Led by captains Brian Cody, Kevin Druecker and David Heffron, they progressed quickly. Outstanding players this season included the three captains as well as the new talent of sophomores Steve Pandosh and Kenny Jenner. Part of the team's success relied on the strong defense of goalkeeper Jerry Doemling, who still caught the soccerball as if it were a basketball (we at least give you credit for trying, Jerry). Although several of the players will achieve varsity status next year, a good foundation of returnees will continue to bring future victory for Penncrest.

Next year's varsity players in action.

According to Coach Shea, "All the athletes on the 9th grade soccer team have been a pleasure to work with throughout the season. Their attitudes and skills towards soccer have improved . . .," and the coach is looking forward to the next season. With outstanding players Sean Evans (captain), Derek Scanlon (captain), Chad Texter, and Scott Waldman, the team's season ended in a 3-6-3 record.

The ninth grade soccer team continues in the Penncrest tradition.

Although the 1987 Varsity Field Hockey team ended the season at 6-9-2, the players demonstrated an overall optimistic attitude throughout the year.

Overall, important achievements are credited to the team in general as well as individually. This encompasses the title of Most Improved Team at the International Camp (in 1986 they scored seven goals — in 1987 they scored a total of twenty-two!). Joyce Maxwell received the All-Central League Honorable Mention this season. Mrs. Kelly does believe she is supervising with one of the best teams since 1982. Though eleven seniors shall bid farewell when they graduate, Coach Kelly will have a fine bunch from J.V. to choose from next year. Way to go Lady Lions!!

The Varsity Field Hockey team tripled their scoring record at the 1987 International Camp.

ending the season with a record of 8-4-1. The Junior Varsity Field Hockey team consisted to refine their athletic abilities as well as display fine sportsmanship (or, rather, sportswomanship). By working together with the Varsity, they reinforced their skills by involving scrimmages between both teams.

One high point in the season was the overnight camp which took place at Arlington Lake for an intense session of hockey skills over a period of three days. Other important events included participation in a tournament at Cape Henlopen, Delaware (where they proved that not only surfers make waves at the beach playing volleyball — field hockey on the beach is equally exciting!) and visitation to the Penn State campus by twenty-five of the players.

They possess a bright outlook for next year as described by their slogan, "We keep getting better." With such model players as Val Taylor and Dottie Hudak, they promise to continue the tradition of distinction into next season.

The ninth grade hockey team had a winning season, finishing with a 6-4-2 record. With team captains Terry DellaGuardia and Erin Templeton, the Lady Lions practiced and maintained their offense and defense throughout its season. This practice obviously paid off, thus insuring that the team members will be seen in the JV or Varsity teams in future years.

At the awards ceremony the team held at the end of the year, five trophies were awarded. Best Offensive Player went to Claire Blanchette, and Best Defensive Player went to both Mari Trail and Kristin Keller. Best Team Player was awarded to captain Terry DellaGuardia. Best Hustle was won by Natalie Sabetelli.

"These were a very nice group of girls to work with," said Coach Long, "and I think they will help Penncrest start a winning tradition."

BOYS' JUNIOR VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY

The Varsity Cross Country team, coached by Mr. Lambert, increased its incredible winning streak to 51 victories. The team beat league favorites Upper Darby and Haverford to remain undefeated for the season. Captain Mark Dehmel led the Varsity squad to its fifth Central League Championship by winning the league meet. Dehmel continued to demonstrate his talent by placing second in the 280-runner field of the District I meet, qualifying for the State Championships. The Junior Varsity team also had a fantastic season despite small numbers, finishing 3rd in the Central League with a 6-3 record. Mr. Lambert is proud of the hard work that the whole Cross Country team has put forth.

Row One: B. Yurchak, M. O'Neill, T. Kelly, M. Vanim. Row Two: M. Sypher, G. Hsu, S. Poggenpohl, D. Marshall, Coach Dale

The Girls' Cross Country team finished the season with a 9-0 record!

Row One: Coach Lambert, K. Folk, J. Kelly, K. Kautz, J. Salidis. Row Two: J. Bunner, N. Fiorella, K. Moore, C. Coll, T. Pratt, R. Min.

The girls' cross country team, one of the school's best ever, finished the season with a perfect 9 - 0 record. Led by captain Karen Kautz and returning members Jen Kelly and Joanna Salidis, the new runners improved quickly as the season progressed. The highlight of the season was the girls' one-point victory over rival Haverford, whom the team had been trying to defeat for several years. Towards the end of the season the team showed not only talent but closeness and caring within the group. Coaches Mr. Lambert and Mr. Dale expect an even better season next year as the team will lose only one member, senior Kautz. Watch for the Lady Lions in '88!

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

This year's varsity volleyball team had a very successful season. Coached by Mrs. Levesque, this squad finished its season with a 17-3 record and tied with Springfield to share the Central League Championship title. The team finished second in the Quaker-town volleyball tournament — the best finish in Penncrest history — and also finished fourth in the District I tournament out of a field of 21 teams.

One of this year's highlights was the pre-season scrimmage against West Chester Henderson. After being behind 0-14, these lady lions made a comeback to win sixteen straight points and the game. This team also got off to a great start in the regular season beginning with a 9-0 record.

The whole team thought of themselves as one big family, which was conducive to great teamwork. They also had a companion cheering them on at every meet ... a large stuffed lion named "Ace."

This year's J.V. volleyball team showed some real spirit on the court. Said Coach Saba, "It was a real pleasure to work with this wonderful team. They stuck together when they had to in order to succeed." The entire team contributed to their impressive 19-1-0 record. Players Melissa Kubicky and Laurie Younger were especially helpful, as were co-captains Beth Lockyer and Dara Wambach. One of the team's best performances was against top-ranked Springfield. Although the team did not win, they showed great character in coming back against overwhelming odds. Coach Saba considers that game to have been their best. Keep it up, Lions!

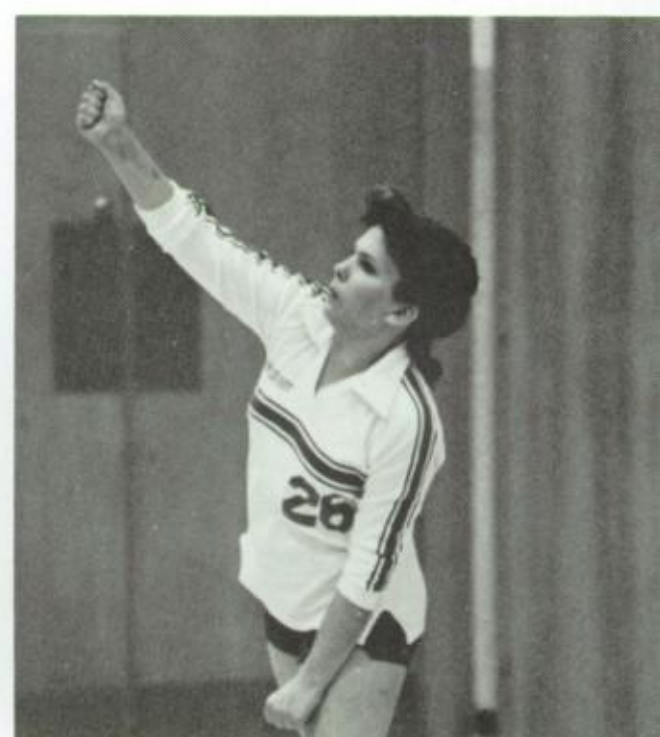

Row One: N. Vadino, M. Kubicky, L. Younger, N. Yoshizawa, J. Brooks. Row Two: Coach Saba, B. Lockyer, D. Tempesta, A. Arata, J. Lowenstein, D. Wambach, H. Parkinson.

The ninth grade volleyball team improved rapidly as the season progressed. Throughout the season the players worked hard and showed plenty of team spirit. Donna Thomas, Denise Finnegan, and Shana Goodwin kept Lion spirit alive throughout every game by energizing the team. All players exhibited a willingness to put forth extra effort by diving for the ball and setting up for their teammates. This ninth grade team was truly awesome.

NINTH VOLLEYBALL

The girl's tennis team, led by Mrs. Mitrione and captain Margaret Graham, finished a solid season. Although the team was much smaller this year, the players continued to show spirit and dedication. Graham and Alison Campbell were two of the team's outstanding players. With a personal record of 6-3, Graham was nominated for All Central League; Campbell, who had a record of 6-2, was nominated for Honorable Mention in All Central League. Good job, Lions! Next year the team will miss seniors Graham, Snead and Hart but will be able to depend on the talent of underclassmen Becky Higgins, Meghan McLenahan, and Polly Chessick.

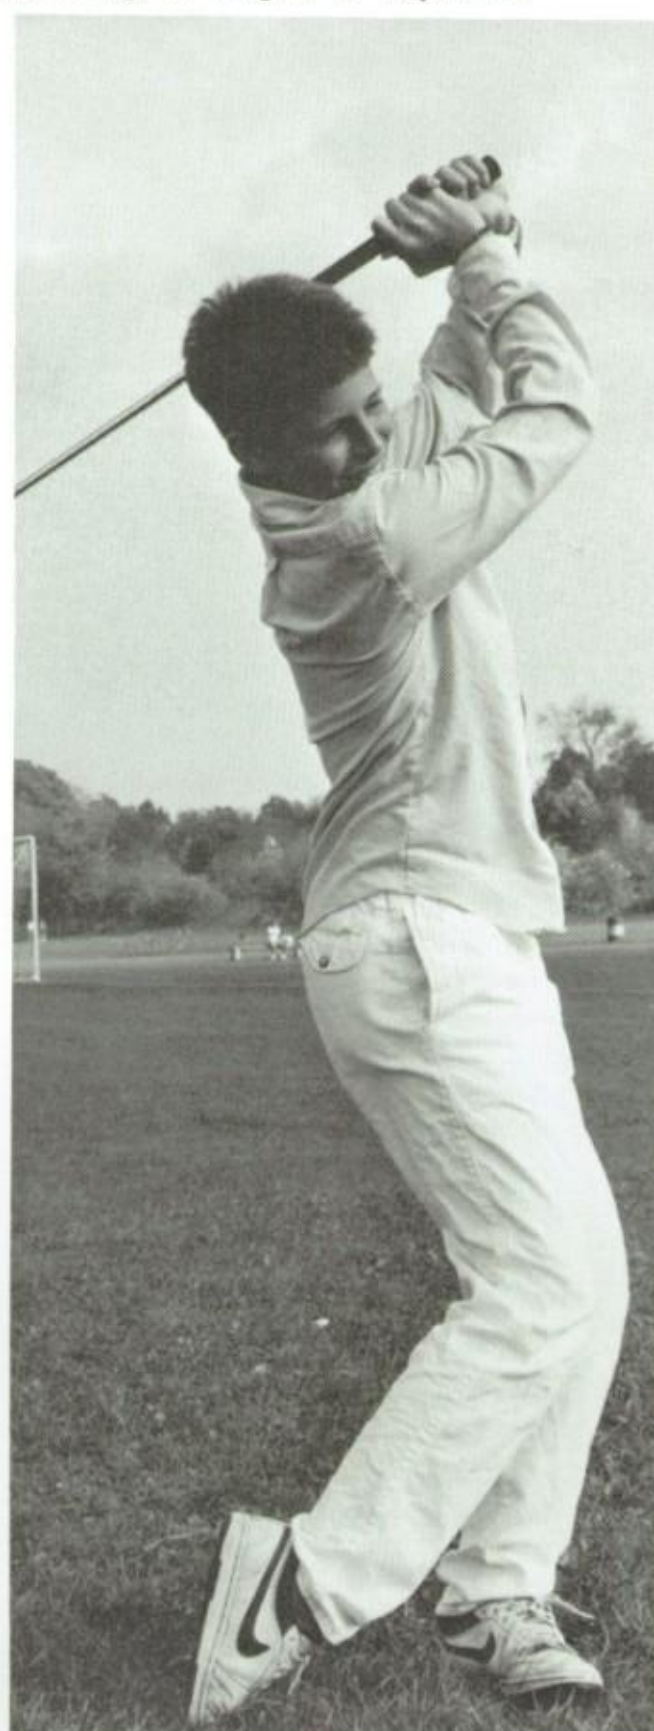

GIRLS' TENNIS

GOLF

The Penncrest Golf team enjoyed a rebirth of interest and enthusiasm this year. Despite the lack of experienced golfers, this year's team placed fifth in the Central League with a record of three wins and six losses. Shawn Reynolds and Sean Wollaston were the only golfers that competed in the Central League. Shawn finished the season in seventh place with a score of 93, while Sean managed to place sixth in the Central League, with a score of 91. Quite a few underclassmen joined the team, having with them a desire to learn and a commitment to excellence. Freshmen who joined the team this year were the following: Todd Wollaston, Pete Wright, and Dennis Di-Bonaventura. Coach Ventresca hopes for a winning season on the greens and fairways next year!

Row one: T. Wollaston, M. Reed, S. Sypher, S. Wollaston, P. Wright, C. Francis. Row two: Coach Ventresca, J. Beane, J. Serwatka, M. Lefkof, E. Armstrong, J. Wright, S. Reynolds.

This year's Varsity Cheerleading Squad consisted of fifteen girls, led by captains Lisa Riente and Debbie Shipley with faculty advisor Ms. Zebley. They cheered at all football and basketball games, as well as home soccer games. They placed Fourth in Cheer and Dance at the Central League Cheerleading Championships at Upper Darby High School in March

The J.V. Squad, led by captains Tina Blosenski and Cindy Fuller included thirteen girls. Faculty advisor was Mrs. Jenner. They cheered at home football games, basketball, and soccer games. They received First Place in Cheer and Dance at the Central League Cheerleading Championships at Upper Darby High School in March. At the same competition, the ninth squad placed First in Cheer. Their faculty advisor was Mrs. Hammond.

Coached by Mrs. Sharon Hammond, the ninth grade cheerleading squad had a most magnificent year. With hard work and a large amount of support from the varsity and junior varsity squads, the ninth grade cheerleading squad cheered the ninth grade football team to an undefeated season. The squad consisted of nine girls in the fall and twelve in the winter. In the fall, captains Kara Hammond and Stephanie Wu led the squad at the freshman football and soccer games. In the winter, Kara along with Nina Donze, led the squad in cheering at the freshman basketball games. In March, the girls entered a competition. With long hours of practice, they prepared a dance routine and won Central League in cheer division.

NINTH CHEERLEADING

The 1987-'88 Varsity Basketball team weathered a season of peaks and valleys. The team had two streaks of two wins each, but wound up with a 6-9 record. It suffered the losses of Kurt Meiser to a knee injury and of Tony Rainey to Chester. One bright point, however, was the emergence of Len Jenkins, a sophomore with the potential to become a key player in the future of Penncrest basketball. The team was coached by Mr. Wilson and led by senior captain Larry Meli and a host of experienced seniors (8 in all).

VARSITY BOYS BASKETBALL

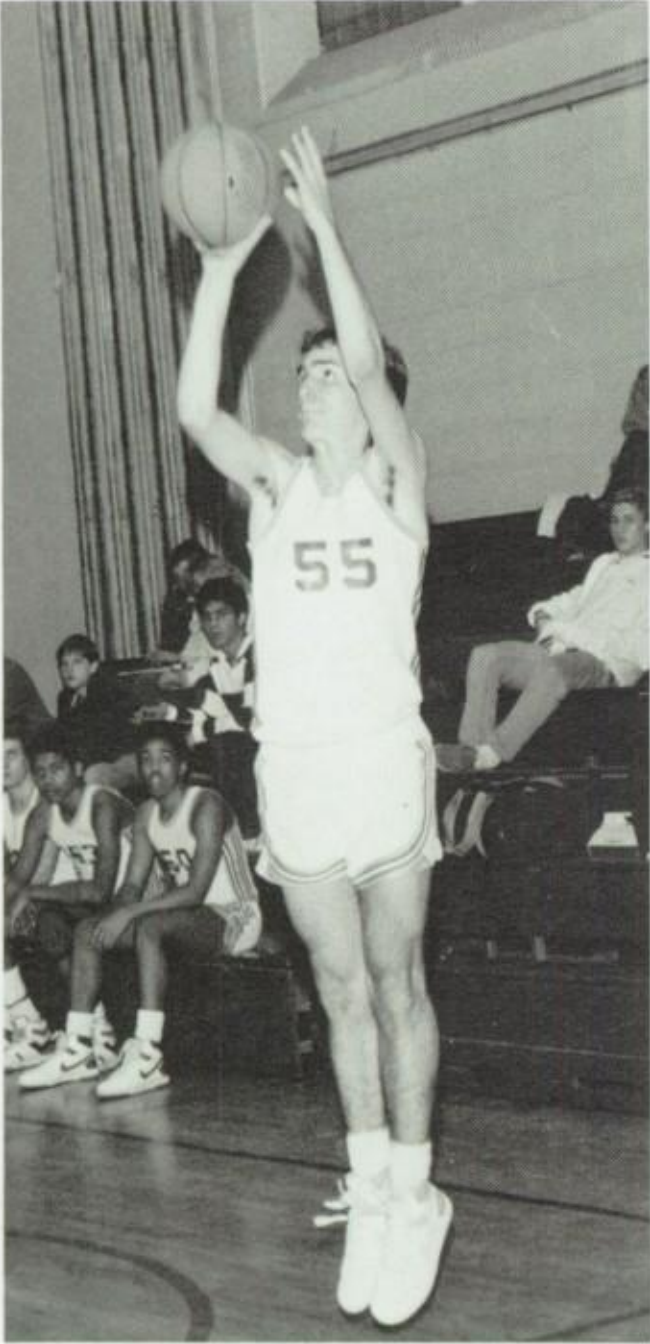

Row one; M. Hefferan, E. Ohline, A. Yates, R. Butler, T. Jones, D. Trusty, Row two; T. Rahnor, J. Johnson, T. McGraw, A. Johnson, Mr. Oerther (coach), M. Lefkof, M. Manoogain, G. Metzger.

The Boy's JV Basketball team maintained a good attitude this year while weathering a bad season of 1-12. While the scores were consistently close, the team always seemed to be falling short. They persisted, however, and practiced their slogan of "Defense."

The team was led this year by Junior captains Eric Ohline and Mike Hefferan. Andre Jackson, Troy Jones, and Jason Johnson were among the most outstanding players.

The J.V. team is meant to prepare the players for future years as Varsity players. Coach Oerther works hard to teach players the skills as well as a little about themselves. "I work awful hard to improve the player both as athletes and as human beings. I try to develop the idea that there is no 'I' in 'team.'"

J.V. BOYS BASKETBALL

Row One: J. Brees, B. Morris, J. Kearns, P. Fox. Row Two: J. Metzgar, A. Yates, J. Megahey, K. Mieser, J. Smith, S. Waldman. Not Pictured: D. Doemling

The freshmen boy's basketball team experienced a winning season, with a 12-1 record, and was undefeated in the Central League. The team dropped the season opener versus Tredyffrin-Easttown, but came back to defeat them later in the season for their eleventh win.

The team has a system of game captains so that everyone gets an opportunity to be one. Of the twelve members of the team, Kyle Meiser, Drew Doemling, John Kearns, Joe Metzger, and Joe Megahey were among the most outstanding.

Coach Johnson was pleased with the team's progress this year. "I've coached for 3 years on the freshman level," says Coach Johnson, "and this is one of the better teams I have coached. They're the type that listens and pays attention."

NINTH BOYS' BASKETBALL

Row One: W. Heffernan and M. Valentine, captains Row Two: K. Hetrick, J. Rasdolsky, M. Benson, T. Lee, D. Welc, Mrs. Long (coach). Not pictured: D. Rambert, K. Wiggins.

The Lady Lions, coached by Teresa Long, attained a record of 9-9 overall at the time of this report. Wendy Heffernan and Mandy Valentine, co-captains of the Lady Lions, led the team to second place in the Cheltenham Christmas Tourney. Valentine was also the "all tournament representative." The year was plagued by injuries, but to a lesser degree as Mandy Valentine returned from her injuries last year. Players to look for next year are Kate Wiggins-9th grade 1987 MVP- and returning players Tawala Lee and Jody Rasdolsky.

VARSITY GIRLS BASKETBALL

Under the direction of Coach Braselman and Coach Kelly, the Junior Varsity Girl's Basketball team worked primarily on reinforcing skills, and they united as a team very well. Most of the players were from last year's ninth graders, and together they achieved an 8-9 record. Included in this year's lineup were last year's high scorer Kristi Moore along with returning talent from Gini McDowell and Dana Welc. The team made the most of it, despite the many disappointments due to injury and eligibility problems. Hopefully, such circumstances will not arise next season, and with continued participation, support will be given to the J.V. team for a brighter outlook in the years to come.

Row one: T. North, K. Moore, N. Rohana, D. Welc. Row Two: S. Kelly, K. Korutz, E. Valentine, G. McDowell, A. Thurber. Not pictured: D. Beall.

Row One: D. Evans, K. Trusty. Row Two: B. Jones, S. Wilson, I. Durnell, B. Wilson, M. Day. Row Three: D. Finegan, T. Dellaguardia, M. Jackson, C. Clinton

The 1987-'88 ninth grade girl's basketball team was comprised of only nine players, but it was easier to work with a smaller group. Led by Coach Braid and co-captains Kelli Trusty and Diane Evans, the Team demonstrated their abilities through after school practices at Indian Lane School. Warm-ups included stretching and running, as well as practice layups before a game. Through perseverance and practice we will be seeing these players advance to the J.V. and Varsity levels in upcoming seasons.

NINTH GIRLS' BASKETBALL

WRESTLING

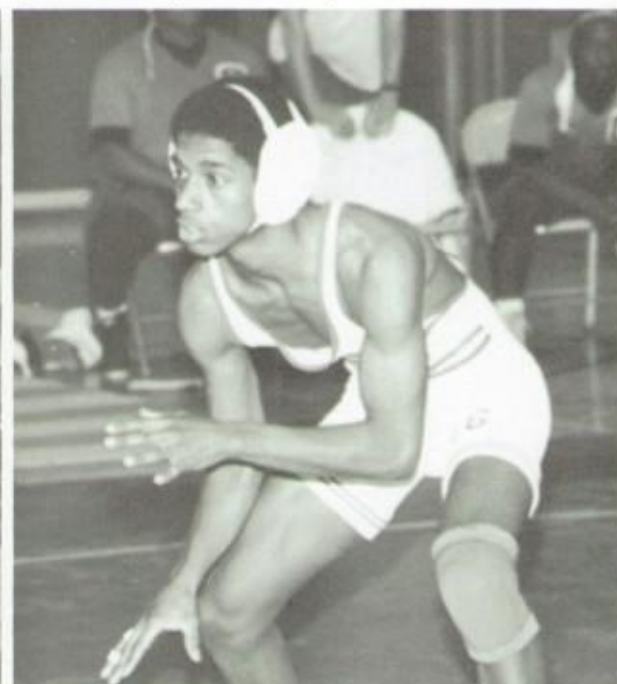

The 1987-'88 wrestling team experienced a good season with their slogan "No Pain, No Gain," enforced by Coach John Best and Senior tri-captains Bob Llewellyn, Mike Vanim, and Mark Sypher. Among the most outstanding wrestlers were Peter Ventresca and John Guy.

The team would usually practice in the gym at 2:30 every day during their season. They would stretch, run, and wrestle during practice.

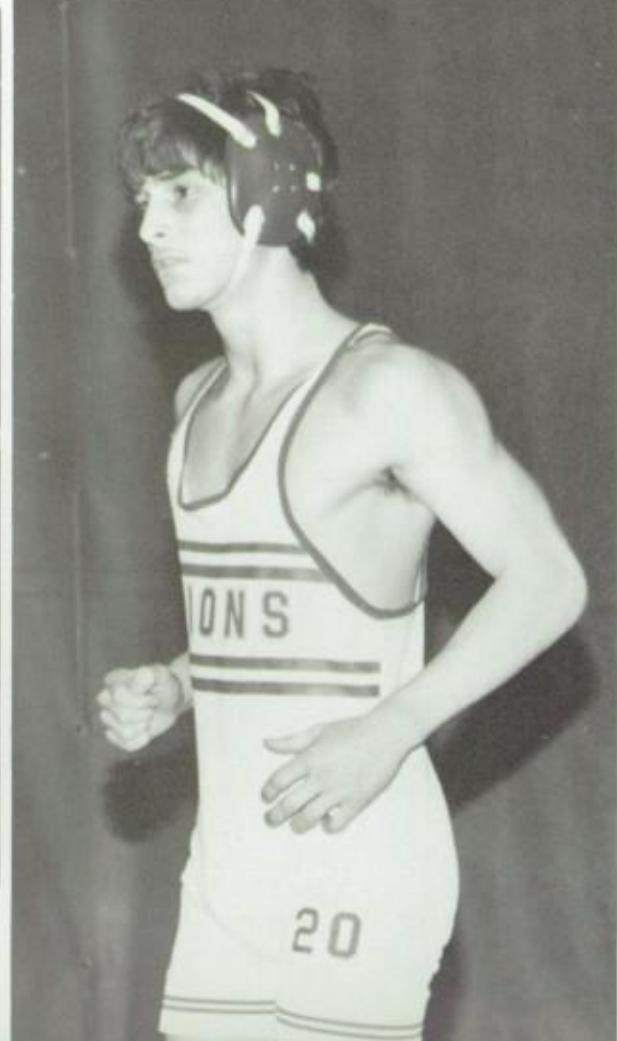

Coach Best was pleased with the teams overall improvement this year, having achieved a 5-10-2 record. "We improved our record from last year," he said, "and continue to improve." Obviously, the coach is pleased and is confident about the team's improving in the future.

Varsity - Row One: B. Llewellyn (captain), M. Vanim (captain), M. Sypher (captain) Row Two: Coach Best, M. Fifer, J. Guy, S. Sypher, J. Gump, P. Ventresca, Coach Myers Row Three: J. McNelis (manager), J. Mergott, D. Vinson, N. Leone, C. Smith, M. Nilson, A.M. Genther

PENNCREST SKI TEAMS

The Penncrest Ski team actually consists of two boys' teams and one girls' team. The red boys' team consists of the more experienced skiers, including Mark Dehmel, Jim Cross, Brian Hughes, and Don Grosser. The red boys' team was 9-2 complementing the gold's performance. The girls' Red team had a record of 8-3 this year. The outstanding skiers were Lauren Ryan and Steph Hoover. There are no formal captains in any pretenses.

Some unusual events included, the canceling of two meets because of snow. Then two meets were canceled because of a lack of snow. These events definitely added character to the season.

The school gets ski team spirit.

GIRLS' GYMNASTICS

This year, Penncrest had two fine gymnasts who worked hard after school and on weekends to perfect their skills. Carol Lacey and Melanie Glick had four meets with Strath Haven and did very well. Melanie qualified for Districts in everything, and for Central Leagues on the bars. Carol qualified on the vault and the bars in Districts and the vault in Central Leagues. Melanie went on to state in bars.

Row one: V. Grant, M. Messenger. Row two: Coach Russell, B. Stuart, K. Blatter, G. Stevenson, C. Trinder, L. Romano, M. Thompson, N. Vadino, M. Staats, Mgr. J. Lee. Row three: P. Chessick, M. Mclenahan, E. Conn, K. Demooy, K. Coulter, D. Hudak, K. Keller, L. Graham.

Many swimmers came out for Girl's Swimming this year. Some of the very best were Barbara Stuart, Megan Staats, and Katie DeMooy. These three, together with Catharine Trinder, made up the all-star 200 medley relay team. Meredith Messenger, a senior, has been an outstanding diver for the team throughout her high school career and will be missed much. Another graduating senior is team captain Vicki Grant who provided strong leadership for the team.

The team had a 6-7 record. Next year, Penncrest's Girl's Swimming team should be even better. This expectation gives special meaning to the slogan, "One More Time."

Row one: J. Folk, J. Thompson, R. Durlacher, G. MacDonald, E. Schlegel. Row two: Mgr. K. Jerell, E. Stahl, Coach M. Saunders, G. Chapman, M. Pickard, S. Snyder.

Under new coach Marty Saunders, the team conducted extra hard practices and most swimmers built up to "personal best" times. Despite this effort, the team record for the year was 4-9. The team was handicapped by the closing of its pool at Srington Lake Middle School for almost three weeks during the middle of the season.

Team Captains J. Marshall Pickard and Scott Snyder, were swimming for the team for their fourth year. They will be missed as will senior divers Greg Chapman and Eric Stahl. Scott was outstanding swimmer, and Greg was outstanding diver on this year's team. The team salutes exchange student Javier Reviriego, a member of this year's team whose efforts were sincerely appreciated.

SWIMMING

INDOOR TRACK

The indoor track team had a good season this year. Under the direction of Mr. Lambert and Mr. Lohn, the team was obviously in good hands. There were no real captains; instead, there were outstanding runners. For the boys they were Mark Dehmel, Mark Fleming, Chris Koeppen, and Doug Boyd. The girls' relay team of Katy Moore, Penny Pfeiffer, Pam Wright and Roseshel Martin achieved the best shuttle - hurdle relay in the county this year.

The team usually practiced at the teachers' parking lot outside of the cafeteria after school. Everyday, they did races in their idioms of racing and stretching. During snowing and raining days, the team practices in the hallways.

However, led by eight returning Varsity players, and co-captains Mike Donnelly and Greg Hamilton, coach Ray Worrell believes he has a good group to work with. Strength and endurance are being built up by long after-school workouts on the baseball diamond. The coach hopes sophomore Lance Hannum will fit it well. Team moral is very high, and all believe this season will be as successful, if not more, than last year.

With the help of extensive after-school workouts, the team hopes to be ready to face the rest of a very competitive league.

Practice were held inside on days when snow prevailed, and team members worked hard on fundamentals and the finer points of the game to guarantee another winning season. Under the organized guidance of Mr. Ludwig, the team improved in skill level and self-discipline to become a credit to the Penncrest baseball program.
